

February

Babcock International Group PLC (Babcock or the Group) Trading update

Babcock the aerospace defence and security company issues this update covering the first ten months of the financial year ending March

Group trading

Overall Group trading for the first ten months to January was in line with expectations Results